Harvey is a third generation farmer from Frederick, Oklahoma with a diversified farming operation in Tillman County. His farming operation consists primarily of cotton with minimum till and no-till farming practices. Harvey and his wife, Joyce have a son Stacy Brent and wife Carmen from Olathe, KS; and Seth Allen and wife Amy from Owasso, OK. The Schroeder's also have four wonderful grandchildren. Along with agriculture enterprises, Harvey has taught high school science, coached and then had a career in agricultural machinery sales. Harvey served in the Oklahoma National Guard, and was a school board member for sixteen years. He is currently on the Board of Directors for Tillman Producers Coop and Deacon for First Baptist Church.
